Dr. Robert Jasmine Is General Chairman

63rd Annual Old Settler Force On Celebration May 6-7-8 For City Sales Tax

By VIVIAN FAULKNER

The Old Settlers' Day Committee at a meeting last night in the Chamber of Commerce building, made plans for the 63rd annual celebration and consider changing the date from February 22 to one later in the year offering better weather conditions. The commission agreed on May 6, 7, and 8, so it could be put on bigger and better than ever. Next to the Tournament of Roses at Pasadena, this is the oldest civic function in California. The commission, as proposed by Sam Cava, president of the Chamber of Commerce, is made up of two representatives from each of the civic organizations.

General chairman for the affair will be Dr. Robert Jasmine. Plans call for a dance on Friday night, May 6; a parade on Saturday and church activities on Sunday.

Included also will be a carnival, drill teams, majorettes, possibly a band concert and a theatrical presentation.

Of special interest to girls of high school age is to be a Queen contest among girls in the Campbell high school district.

Men also will be interested in the Whiskerino contest.

Chairman of the various committees appointed by Dr. Jasmine are Publicity, Leonard Baptist and F. Ed Lane; Parade, Herbert Shadle, and Guy Smith; Music, Ed Tonini and Dick Gordon; Carnival and Entertainment, Anthony Raffanti; Drill Teams and Floats, Thayer Lyons; Dance, Robert Landreth; Auditor and Finance, William Enoch; Queen and Whiskerino contest, Dr. Howard Manson and George Beaudikoff; Hospitality, Ambros Mirassou; Mounted Units, Gilbert Verone.

The commission decided it would be better to hold a separate judging competition with trophies to be awarded before the parade, so that the parade itself would not be held up every few minutes by the various teams and competitive units performing in front of the judges stand, something which has caused many spectators to leave before the finish in past years. This way the parade will pass swiftly without causing anyone to become too tired to watch the finish and the spectators will enjoy other recreation to be offered like the carnival, a lunch, or concert. The committee is working hard to make this the best celebration Campbell has ever had and from the plans they are making it gives promise of being something of which Campbell will be very proud.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Baughman of 101 N. First Street, are the proud and happy parents of a son, their first, whom they have named Paul Anthony. Little Paul arrived at San Jose Hospital January 4 and is now three weeks old.

Mayor Says No Change In S.J.-Campbell Border Lines

That no agreement had been made as to boundary limits for Campbell and San Jose, was the statement yesterday of Mayor Richard Morton who pointed out that at a recent informal meeting of five councilmen from San Jose and their City Manager A. P. Hamann and City Clerk Dorothy Coll with four Campbell city councilmen no action was taken. We merely expressed interest in what might be boundaries depending on the pleasure of people in the area and that a more definite conclusion may be reached at a forthcoming meeting.

He said that in the past when such matters were discussed mutually that San Jose has respected the agreement. The meeting last Wednesday had nothing binding and was inconclusive he said.

Tentative limits for Campbell's sphere of influence had previously been established to Leigh avenue from Hamilton south to Dry Creek Road, east to San Jose-Los Gatos road and south to Camden avenue.

ROTARY HEARS ABOUT SCHOOLS IN EL SALVADOR

Paul Becker, administrator of a private school in El Salvador, Central America, was guest speaker at the regular Monday luncheon of the Campbell Rotary Club. Becker discussed the customs of the country and told what the school system was doing in regard to the good neighbor policy. He also spoke of the good will created by the United States' Government officials, the Air Force and American citizens who are working unofficially for the betterment of this small country. His school opened originally with six students, now employs 23 teachers and has approximately a 375 enrollment. It is bilingual, teaching both English and Spanish, from the first grade on so that by the time children reach the fourth grade they are able to speak both languages fluently. Dave Rutherford was chairman for the day.

A Club Assembly for members only will be held Monday, February 21, at the Villa Felice.

City Collects Big Tax Check

Ed Merrill, city treasurer said yesterday he had received a check for $28,487.70 from the office of the County Controller John M. Francisco as the amount collected for first installment of the 1954-55 city taxes. This leaves $19151.33 general property taxes to be collected in the second installment period indicating that better than two-thirds of the taxes have been paid here.

At this time a year ago the first installment total paid was $17,332.28 which is $11,155.42 less than was the check just received.

Force On For City Sales Tax

A bill seeking to set up a uniform sales tax of one per cent for cities and counties in California has been introduced in the state legislature by Clark Bradley of San Jose. It was patterned after a resolution adopted at a recent convention in Los Angeles of the California League of Cities.

At this convention, the City of Campbell went on record as opposed to the proposal on a contention that it would force a city to enact a sales tax in order to receive benefits, and in not so doing the moneys would go to the county. This was reported at the City Council following the convention by Councilman John Chargin and Mayor Richard Morton.

The bill by Bradley authorizes the state to collect its own three per cent sales tax plus an additional one per cent to be rebated to city and county governments. Locally collected sales tax among cities would then be eliminated.

All of the additional one per cent tax collected by the state within the city would go to the city and all collected in unincorporated territory would go to the county involved.

Mayor Morton said yesterday Campbell had opposed the proposed bill because if Campbell for example declined to enact a local sales tax then the one per cent which the state collects locally would go instead to the county.

"We felt that it was forcing the cities to levy a sales tax," he explained.

DEADLINE FOR BICYCLE LICENSE IS FEBRUARY 15

Police Chief Robert Locke has issued a statement saying all bicycles 20 inches or over which are ridden on Campbell streets on or after February 15 without a license will be impounded in accordance with the City Bicycle Ordinance. In order to redeem the impounded bicycle the owner must purchase a license and pay the cost of storage.

Bicycle licenses are sold at the Police Station on Saturdays between the hours of 12:00 and 3:00 p. m. Owners must take their bikes to the Police Station and fill out the form provided by the City. After payment of a $1.00 fee the license plate will be securely attached to the bicycle by the police. This registration is required only once and serves as a means of identification if the bicycle is lost or stolen.

BUSINESS LICENSE DEADLINE IS NEAR

Dorothy Trevethan, City clerk, has a gentle reminder for Campbell Merchants that all business licenses will be delinquent after February 1, and the ordinance requires a penalty of 5% per month thereafter. The city clerk is reminding them of this out of the kindness of her heart because she says she would hate to see any of them pay a fine and also because she would like to make out all licenses at the same time. Any merchant who has neglected to pay his fee should hurry in and do so.

Planners Hear

Rice Home Is To Move

The city planning commission adopted a resolution Thursday to change the zoning of 3.8 acres of land near the Sunberry Garden tract in the Herman Y. Rice 13 acre site westerly from Latimer and Winchester Road, the shopping center site. It seeks to change the zoning from C-2-S, R-3-S and R-1 to R-2-S, the hearing being for February 17.

N. Manassy of 195 West Latimer avenue told the planners that property across the street from his home is being sold and two lots about 105 and 135 feet in depths are being made, one to be divided so that the Rice home may be moved from the corner of Latimer and Hamilton avenue. He said it was his understanding people who were buying property on the Bland avenue corner expect to raise dogs as a commercial venture. Planners indicated they would investigate to state objections and violations of the zoning ordinance. Rev. Herbert Johnson of the Assembly of God Church on Winchester road reported to the planners that a 100x150 footlot had been purchased fifty feet north of their property to be used for parking, so the commission approved a use permit and declared them now qualified to apply for a variance to construct rooms proposed for their present building.

CITIES NEED GOOD PRESS RELATIONS

"Municipal Government and its Relationship with the Press" was the topic of Gordon Waldear at a meeting in Burlingame of the Peninsula Division, League of California Cities, presided over by Richard C. Morton, Mayor of Campbell and president of the Peninsula Division Thursday.

Waldear pointed out the constructive influences of the press and the municipality in deliberately working out community problems. He said the public suffers if there is bad relations between a city and the press. As a former managing editor, he said the newspaper is a non-governing institution empowered to reflect the thoughts and actions of those in public office, and that an informed press is a respected force toward community betterment.

Waldear is with American Broadcasting Company which produces TV public affairs programs.

Cities of Santa Clara, San Mateo and San Francisco Counties had invited newspaper representatives to this meeting. Attending from Campbell, besides Mayor and Mrs. Morton, were City Engineer and Mrs. Mark Thomas, Councilman James Arends, Councilman Charles Rose, Police Chief Robert Locke, Superintendent of Streets LeRoy Black and Lester Lafferty, editor of the Campbell Press.

EDITORIAL

PROGRESS IN CAMPBELL

No one can tell at this stage of development what reaction to the economic life of Campbell will be when the two million dollar shopping centers are completed within our city limits sometime in 1955 and some forty new stores are opened for business. We are definitely on the threshold of some such change whether we like it or not.

New roads are to be built and old ones widened. Orchards are being uprooted and the ground made ready for new churches, duplexes, homes, stores and schools. Industry is being coaxed our way, but even if it does not come immediately, we are within five miles of industrial plants employing many thousands of people and having big payrolls. In 1954 alone, 36 new industries were set up in this county with $14,578,000 capital invested and 2,539 jobs created. There were 89 expansions with $5,530,321 capital invested.

The expandable limits of the city are being spelled out. Campbell in 1954 adopted a zoning ordinance and a master plan, something which very few cities, incorporated but two years, have succeeded in doing. In fact, cities established many years are still talking about some day setting up a master plan, but never seem to get around to doing it.

The fruition of our planning, of our outward development, of our new light in the march of progress, seems to be coming soon and there is nothing in the way to stop it. Time marches on.

NO SUBSTITUTE FOR THE LOCAL PAPER

The surest way to develop the local community and create permanent prosperity is to encourage the building of steady payrolls.

Information that shows the individual his interest in productive enterprise is indispensable to the sound solution of questions that encourage the establishment or growth of industries and businesses.

Just as industries bring business to every store, so do they make possible advertising and subscribers upon which the local newspaper depends, and herein lies the interest of editors in the problems of industry.

That this philosophy is sound and has a direct bearing on the prosperity of every community, every business and every individual is evidenced by figures released by the Chamber of Commerce of the United States covering the period from 1940 to 1950. They show that for every 100 new industrial workers in nine counties surveyed by the Chamber, retail sales zoomed $360,000, personal income $590,000, and bank deposits $270,000.

An increase of 100 industrial workers meant 174 new jobs in other lines of work, 112 more households and a population increase of 296—new purchasers of all manner of goods and services. The survey covered a ten year period and was designed to measure the impact of new industry on local business.

The problems of industry are the problems of the people. They involve the welfare of the newspaper which is the mirror for the people and every business in the community.

People rely heavily on the home town paper. No other agency is a substitute for it. From politics, deaths, births and editorial comment on public issues, local and national, to household recipes, the grass roots press informs its subscribers.

It is the newspaper that people live with, sit down with, and study. Its editorials help its readers formulate their own conclusions on current issues — not necessarily in agreement with the editor. It is therefore logical that editors should take the lead in discussing issues which involve production and payrolls — bread and butter for all.

HOW SAFE IS A CAR?

How safe is it to get behind the wheel of a flashy new 1955 car? Are the new autos, with their wrap-around windshields, massive grills, finger-tip steering and passing gears, scientifically designed to reduce hazards and minimize the seriousness of accidents?

In a recent article in "Nation's Business" a writer maintains that they are. The title of his piece is "They are Built to Save Lives."

There is a violent dissent, however, in a letter to the magazine's editor the following month written by Dr. Horace E. Campbell, a member of the Automotive Safety Committee of the Colorado State Medical Society.

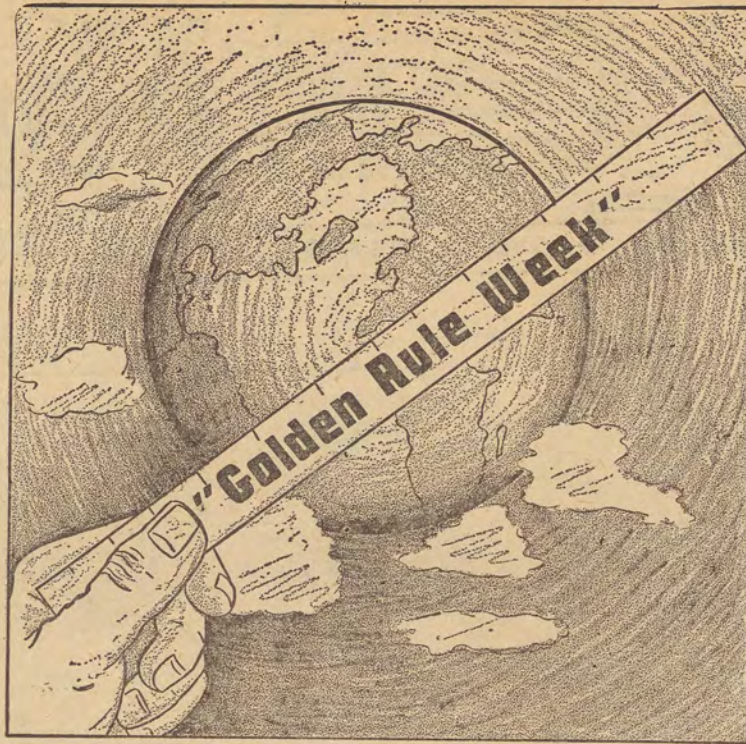

Dr. Campbell argues that the new cars "flout almost all of the modern requirements for safety," and that "there is not one automobile in America that is designed for safety."

He concedes that automobile engineers have made some advances: front wheel spindles don't break the way they used to, and flywheels no longer explode. Auto makers should have learned a few things in the last 50 years, he says, and they have, but they haven't learned enough. One thing they haven't learned, he points out, is how to keep doors from popping open.

In a safety move, some manufacturers have put an inch of sponge rubber on the dashboard to protect the occupant of the "suicide seat" in the event of a crash or sudden, jolting stop. Dr. Campbell terms this innovation as no more effective than a coating of wrapping paper. To be of any real value, he says, an energy absorbing material on the panel should be three to four inches thick.

While it is true that the new cars' massive grill

SAFETY PIN WEEK Has just been observed at the high school to replenish the supply needed by the girls' gym classes, each member coming with two safety pins worn on her collar for the remainder of the week, the class with 100 per cent rating being given a free period for a party, all of which resulted in a large variety of pins now on exhibit in the gym office according to an item in the current issue of the Campus Echo, the school paper . . . pipe the crazy jive in Grandma's day writes a columnist in the Echo quoting such as, "A stitch in time saves nine"; "A bird in the hand is worth two in the bush"; "A penny saved is a penny earned"; "Twenty-three skidoo"; "A rolling stone gathers no moss"; and "You reap what you sow".

THREE SEDANS With dual controls are being used at Campbell High School in the driver education course, largest class of its kind in all Santa Clara County, from which more than 2000 students have been graduated since 1944 and in which there are some 320 students enrolled today . . . the one semester course is given students in their sophomore year so they can get six months of driving instruction while most of them are 15 years old, according to Laurence Hill, school superintendent who adds that they may then qualify for a driver's permit to gain more experience with their parents as coaches.

CARL FIELD Has been doing business at the same location in Campbell for thirty years having bought out the branch of the Farmer's Union in June, 1925 . . . Mrs. Violet Parks has the young voice which answers the telephone when you call the Field Store and and shiny bumpers crumple and absorb energy in an accident, it is also true that they do so at a cost of about $300.00 per crumple. Dr. Campbell offers an idea for an improvement:

"Why do not the engineers put a standard 30-inch replaceable energy-absorbing nose made out of aluminum foam on every one of the 6,000,000 new cars?" he asks. "After any but the worst crash, the motorist could drive under his own power to the nearest service station and get a new unit with no more trouble or expense than a new tire."

Dr. Campbell quotes a highway expert's report that "the basic problem of saving lives in highway collisions is holding your seat in the crash." Automobile engineers have done nothing about this problem. Yet known safety principles have been applied to aircraft that have made it possible for military aviators to "walk away from crashes that in the motorcar of today result in death for every one in the car."

After reading Dr. Campbell's critical observations, one is inclined, temporarily at least, not to want to be caught dead in a new car—and more than a little afraid he will be!

WHAT'S DOING

Left-over wire gets new lease on life

In the telephone business, we call the wire that leads from your telephone at home to the pole outside a "drop" wire. Maybe you've seen some of our men putting up drop wires around town. If you have, you probably noticed that a few short pieces were left over on some of the jobs. Now, these odds and ends of wire weren't of much use until recently. It was too costly to splice them together. But now an economical way has been found to join drop-wire scraps into long, continuous pieces which can be put to work. Naturally, this is a big cost-cutter . . . one that helps us as we work to keep down the prices you pay for service. Pacific Telephone works to make your telephone a bigger value every day.

Home's never very far away by telephone

Just because Dad's out of town on business, he needn't be out of personal touch with the rest of the family. In just moments, you can all be together again—visiting, laughing, trading the latest news. For even when you're far away, home's as near as the closest telephone. And a visit by long distance is almost like being there in person. It costs so little, too. You can make a three-minute "station" call clear across the country, after 6 p. m. weekdays and all day Sunday, for only $2.00 (plus tax). And of course, rates for shorter distances are even less. So let long distance keep you in close touch with your family and friends. It's a pleasure you can hardly afford to miss.

TWENTY YEARS OF SERVICE

Amelia Davis who was recently appointed central office clerk in the long distance office celebrated her 20th anniversary with Pacific Telephone last month. Her co-workers held a "pin-party" at 80 South Market Street to help her celebrate her service.

In her 20 years of service Amelia has a perfect attendance record. She has never been absent from the job and has never reported late for work. When questioned about this she said, "I just formed the habit of always coming to work. Also I have been fortunate enough to have good health."

Amelia lives with her father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Walter L. Davis at 1830 Hamilton Avenue. In her spare time she loves to garden.

"Gracious Living Through Household Efficiency" was the theme of the talk given by Mrs. Clifford Transteth at the January meeting of the high school Faculty Wives Club. Mrs. Transteth, who teaches an Adult class on the subject in San Jose, discussed various ways in which the housewife might conserve her time and energy.

She suggested that each day the housewife ask herself, "Am I doing this in the best possible way?" Mrs. Transteth concluded that if the housekeeper would use her head more, she'd tire her body less.

Faculty Wives president, Veva Chamberlin, presided over the business session of the get-together, held at the home of Bev Muir, 667 Norin Court. Refreshments were served by cohostesses Marge Scroggins, Grace Runcie, and Mary Crawford.

Faculty Wives plans for February include a February 19th Dinner-Dance to be held at the Red Barn, with husbands as guests.

Cambrian Mothers Are All Set For 'March Of Dimes'

Mothers of the Cambrian School are all set for their "March of Dimes" on next Tuesday evening at 7:00 p. m., according to Mrs. John Herndon, area chairman of the School district.

Forty mothers have signed up to make the march which will cover every street in the school district and will stop at every house having a porch light burning, the signal which indicates the occupant wishes to contribute to the Polio fund. The mothers hope to collect a substantial increase over last year's receipts because the great number of Polio cases which occurred the past year have caused an exhaustive drain on the Polio fund. Residents of the Cambrian area are urged to remember this night and not forget to turn on their porch lights.

Chairman of the Hacienda Garden district is Mrs. Loretta Heald and chairman of the Cambrian Park district is Mrs. R. F. Booth.

Mothers March Next Tuesday For Polio Fund

Santa Clara County is expected to be lit up like a gigantic Christmas tree next Tuesday night when thousands of women in all its cities and towns join forces in the 1955 Mothers March, on Polio, according to Campbell women's polio chairman, Mrs. Fred Cornell.

Mrs. Cornell said today that plans are now almost complete for an all-out effort by the women of the county to cap a record climax to the 1955 March of Dimes. County-wide the ladies are hopeful their efforts will yield a total of $60,000 toward the goal of $150,000.

Women volunteers will visit every home in the county where a lighted porchlight, or a candle or lamp shining in the front window indicates that the resident wishes to give to the fight against the dreadedcrippler—POLIO.

"We are hopeful," Mrs. Cornell said, "that the people of Campbell will really 'light up the town' when the Mother March takes place Tuesday night, February 1. Our mothers will be making 'their rounds between 7 and 9 P. M. In rural areas of the county, however, collections will be made on Tuesday afternoon."

Police In Role Of Good Samaritan

Campbell Police played the part of the good Samaritan last Friday when E. R. Meyers of 126 E. Campbell Avenue made an urgent call to the Police station for an escort to County Hospital for Mrs. Mary Chapman of 26 Gilman Avenue who he believed to be dying. Police promptly answered the call and found Mrs. Chapman having great difficulty in breathing, so they bundled her into their Police car and sped off with sirens screaming to the hospital where she received the necessary aid.

Proctors were reported to be active on Esther Avenue Sunday night by Mrs. Betty Burum of 288 Esther Avenue. Mrs. Burum told Police her neighbor had chased two teen-age boys from his home and that another neighbor, Mrs. Ledigan, said someone had tried to break into her car.

Early Sunday morning Police found an abandoned car parked at the J&A Market's parking lot. The car, a 1946 Pontiac sedan, was returned to Mathew Corcoran of 231 S. Morrison Avenue, San Jose, who had reported it stolen.

Christian Science

Divine Love's inexhaustible supply of good for man will be brought out in the Lesson-Sermon entitled "Love" at Christian Science services Sunday.

Selections to be read from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy will include the following (494:10): "Divine Love always has met and always will meet every human need. It is not well to imagine that Jesus demonstrated the divine power to heal only for a select number or for a limited period of time, since to all mankind and in every hour, divine Love applies all good."

Among the passages to be read from the Bible is the following from Psalms (103:2-4): "Bless the Lord, O my soul, and forget not all his benefits; Who forgiveth all thine iniquities; who healeth all thy diseases; Who redeemeth thy life from destruction; who crowneth thee with lovingkindness and tender mercies."

Community Service Fund To Disband

The board of trustees of the Campbell Community Area Service Fund which met Monday night at the High School approved the disbandment of their organization and the affiliation of Campbell with the Community Welfare Council of Santa Clara County. No positive action was taken because of the lack of full representation of the nine participating agencies. The decision to disband the Campbell Service Fund was brought about by the apathy of residents of this area.

In a letter, C. J. Anderson, executive director of the Community Welfare Council, stated the Council approved the affiliation of Campbell with the County organization and that the Milk Fund and Library would be included in their list of agencies. Campbell is to be given full representation in the Council by two members who are to be selected from a list of five nominees.

The treasurer, Mrs. George Machado, reported a total of $8,349.20 in the Campbell account, with 20% of this total to be received from the United Givers Plan to increase the amount to a grand total of $10,029.04. This is far short of the $19,600 goal set by the Campbell Service Fund. Accordingly, the nine agencies will receive one-third the amount originally sought for their budgets.

The next meeting of the Campbell Community Service Fund will be Monday, February 28, at the High School and at that time the organization hopes for a full representation by the nine agencies so that the business on hand can be completed.

First-Aid-O-Ral For Scouts Was A Success Here

At the First-aid-O-ral held Friday at Campbell High School, the Explorer Crew of Troop 31 achieved highest score and an "A" rating in first aid. The event, which was sponsored by the Campbell District of the Boy Scouts of America, was participated in by 36 patrols representing nine scout troops.

Activities covered were ten primary first aid principles which each scout must know before qualifying for his first class scouting award.

There were 248 scouts actually participating in the First-aid-O-ral and there were 51 scouters and 38 guests present.

The Kiwanis Troop 28 opened the show with a Flag Ceremony, the color bearers being Jerry Hyde, Jack Johnson, Gary Hayes, Clifton Reynolds, Ronnie Dodd and Allen Johnson. The bugler was Jack Cuio and the narration of "The American's Creed" was given by Explorer John Duncan. The ceremony was planned and supervised by Daryl Rachford, Campbell Police Officer, who is assisting with the Troop as an adult leader.

The First Aid Contest involved the basic skills of first aid as required in the 2nd class and 1st class Badges. The Beaver patrol and the Graveyard patrol received a "B" rating and the Mohawk patrol received a "C" rating. Only one of the 35 patrols at the gathering received an "A" rating.

The following additional Scouts from the Kiwanis Troop participated; Bill Duncan, Dickie Burns, Bill Enoch, Royal Page, Craig Morton, Bill Smart, Jack Merrill, and Fred Andres. Explorer Tim Sullivan assisted the patrols.

The adult leaders who were present with the Troop were Ed Merrill, Jack Burns, Ken Robison, and Merle Dodd.

Mary Kosloski, March of Dimes poster girl, sure had fun when she visited the office in Washington of U. S. Senator Thomas H. Kuchel of California. Cambrian School Uses Progressive Teaching Methods

One of the largest and most interesting Instructional Materials Departments in the county is maintained by the Cambrian Elementary School. Because of its constant growth in enrollment the School has felt justified in assigning to one professionally trained person, Paul Lozar, the responsibility for supervising through one agency, a centralized audio-visual department, library, and textbook service. This is a trend being followed by schools in many counties throughout the State. At Cambrian the department has additional duties, such as the purchase and distribution of school supplies and a duplicating and mimeographing service.

Some of the typical services performed are: Working with administrative and teaching staff to improve the curriculum and teaching practices directing the organization, physical arrangement and operation of the department maintaining the library services, assistance to teachers and students in locating and using curriculum materials publication of a monthly "Newsletter" to inform the staff of newly released materials and advice on equipment; preparing requisitions for text books furnished by the State; and supervision of a student staff working for the department.

Directing of the student staff is an interesting work and one which the school feels is of value to the students. Projectionists for the various machines are given a course of instruction with pins and operator cards awarded to those completing the course. The department has found that children can do this work with considerable skill as early as the fourth grade, and it is an honor to be selected for operation of these machines. Only films of educational value are used for classes. The County office has very few entertainment movies, and these are for out-of-school affairs, and parent groups.

Another student training group consists of a small number of upper grade students who are learning the rudiments of office practice, such as typing, filing, duplicating and so forth, which should be of value to students who plan to follow an office career. This training will extend to library practice when the library is available. Cambrian School has an excellent library, complete with equipment and all type books which it has not been able to use, due to the fact that it serves as a classroom under the present overcrowded conditions. Opening of the new Steindorf School in March will free the library of classrooms and allow restoration of library service which is a must in any modern school.

Eight More Days To Have Your Car License Renewed

Motorists have just eight more days, including today to get their 1955 license tabs, with Saturday being only a half-day.

The deadline for renewing the registration on all types of vehicles is Friday, February 4. After that, the law requires the State Department of Motor Vehicles to impose penalties on all late renewals.

Under the law the flat registration fee of $8 is doubled, and a penalty of 50 percent of the license fee is added on renewals made after the deadline, it was explained by Motor Vehicles Director Paul Mason.

Permanent branch offices of the Department of Motor Vehicles will be open to handle all types of renewals from 8 a. m. to 5 p. m. on week days, and until noon of January 29, the final Saturday half-day of the registration period. The temporary registration stations in banks in various parts of the state are open only during banking hours, and are authorized to make renewals only upon presentation of the pre-punched fee statement cards mailed from Sacramento.

Owners who failed to receive cards are still required to renew before the deadline, and may do so by presenting their 1954 white

Church Loyalty Oath May Be Cut Out In New Bill

A bill was introduced in the legislature last week by Assemblyman Clark Bradley of Santa Clara County which would not compel church board members to sign loyalty oaths when applying for allowable tax exemptions on church properties. The situation was objected to last year by one of the local church boards.

Bradley says his measure would end the furor, including litigation surrounding the claims of certain churches that the loyalty oath requirement violates their constitutional rights.

The San Jose assemblyman says the measure would preserve the traditional separation of the church and state. He pointed out that certain Methodist, Unitarian and Presbyterian groups, including the San Jose First Unitarian Church, have vigorously objected to the loyalty oath requirement.

All other persons or organizations claiming tax exemptions would still have to sign the oaths which were instituted in 1953 after the enactment of a state constitutional amendment barring disloyal persons or organizations from tax exemption.

The Constitution, however, does not state specifically that the loyalty oath must be signed; they were adopted merely as a device for enforcing constitutional provisions.

Bradley has obtained from the State Legislative Counsel a legal opinion that the exclusion of churches from the loyalty oath requirement does not require further constitutional amendment. It can be done by legislative statute such as Bradley's bill.

Mt. View Aided By Polio Fund

Mountain View residents, 12 in all, received a total of more than $5,187.99 in actual financial aid from the Santa Clara County Chapter of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis during 1954, it was announced today by Edward O. Duino, general chairman of the County's 1955 March of Dimes campaign.

Duino, in making public the amount of monies the local chapter has contributed to patient care and rehabilitation within the Mountain View area alone, issued a "zero hour appeal to all citizens of Santa Clara County, and Mountain View residents in particular, to respond to the Nation's battle call against the dread, crippling polio."

During 1954, it was pointed out California had 20 percent of all the Nation's 94,000 polio cases. In Santa Clara County, on a per capita basis, polio incidence appeared highest in the Mountain View and Gilroy locales.

"This figure of $5,187.99 clearly emphasizes why polio must continue on its own as a single campaign, not subject to any budgets or other restrictions imposed by dual drives," said Duino. "Budgeting of a campaign is determined my last year's needs."

"When polio strikes a chapter could find itself with too little... too late. You can't budget polio. One case costs a few dollars, another costs thousands. When an epidemic situation exists, as arose in parts of California last year, money is needed right then and there to help those crippled by the disease," stressed Duino.

Mountain View's number one polio victim is 21 year old Dick Miller, an iron lung patient since he was 17. Dick was brought home from the Polio ward at the County Hospital last August through the benefit of March of Dimes funds. For an indefinite period he must continue to have daily nursing care, which the Polio Chapter is providing at a cost of slightly over $300 per month, or better than $3600 per year for one person afflicted by polio.

Dr. W. R. Morgan Talk On Hygiene At Parker School

Dr. Wyland R. Morgan, prominent Campbell dentist, will be guest speaker when the Union District Home and School Club meet Friday, February 4, at 2:00 p. m. in the Parker School. As February is Dental Health month, Dr. Morgan will speak on modern methods of dental hygiene, regarding our children.

Dr. Morgan is a graduate of the University of California and College of Physicians and Surgeons in San Francisco and has been a member of Kiwanis Club for twenty-three years, with a record of twenty-two years of perfect attendance. In 1951 he served as Lieutenant-Governor of the Kiwanis. He has been a trustee of the Union School for more than ten years and was elected chairman of the board of trustees this year. Dr. Morgan resides off Blossom Hill road and has long been an enthusiastic worker in bettering his neighborhood's schools. He is largely responsible for keeping the number of pupils of Union District Schools down to thirty per room and attaining single session, whereas most county schools are more crowded. To keep abreast of the new subdivisions, Union District will hold an election March 15 to accept State aid.

Slated for discussion will be the question of whether Parker and Union Schools should have separate Home and School Clubs or continue with one as at present. A survey is being sent to parents with the pro and con listed, plus a ballot at the bottom. Parents are asked to return this ballot slip to the child's teacher between February 7 and 11 and then decide whether there is to be one large school club or two small ones. Also on the agenda will be plans for Union District's annual Spring Festival. Committees are being organized and groups are being asked to select booths they would like to handle.

Mothers of first grade students are arranging refreshments and Troop 77, seventh grade Girl Scouts, will act as baby-sitters for the pre-school children.

He was chemist in the laboratory of the Anaconda Copper Mines Corporation at Yerington. He is serving in the armed forces at the present time, so there are no definite wedding plans.

Pilot Club Plans Ming Quong Home Open House Tea

San Jose Pilot Club will sponsor an "Open House" Tea at Ming Quong Home, Saturday, January 29th, from 2:00 to 5:00 p. m. Invitations have been mailed. Presiding at the tea table will be Mesdames: Raymond Fisher, Louis J. Klindt, Charles Erskine, and Scott Wood.

The Ming Quong Home, at 999 Loma Alta, Los Gatos, was originally established to care for Chinese girls and was for many years the only such institution in the U. S. A. It has since broadened its policy to care for both boys and girls of all creeds and races; need being the only requirement for admittance. The children come from many sources and for many reasons. Some are placed directly by a parent or relative. In many cases one parent is dead or confined to long term hospital care, the other parent unable to provide suitable care. Some come from broken homes, some are full orphans placed by the County Welfare Agencies. Although partial payment is expected, no child is refused admittance because of the inability to pay.

In everyday life at Ming Quong, the boys and girls share in the daily house work and outdoor chores, taught by well trained staff members. The girls learn to cook, sew and clean while the boys do the outside yardwork as well as care for the play equipment. Even the "littles" ones help by dusting and making their own beds. All the children attend the local public schools and church. Many attend Girl Scouts, Brownies and Cub Scouts as well as Boys' Club and the Community Center. The children are encouraged to invite their friends "home" to play, or for a meal, and to visit in the homes of their friends. Birthdays are very special events, with a birthday cake and candles, ice cream and birthday presents.

The Public Affairs and Project committee of the Pilot Club is in charge of the Tea and is headed by Mrs. Henrietta B. Cauhape, chairman. She will be assisted by committee members Mesdames: Wendell L. Johnson, Gerald C. Hahn, Nadine Mitchell, Melvin E. Lindstrom, and Miss Angela Spinelli.

Pilot members acting as hostesses and escorting guests on a tour of the home are Mesdames: Edna Anthony, William Beightol, R. J. Benrim, Lewis T. Clohan, Al Darling, Jerry Davis, H. M. Downing, Frances Harpole, Clyde F. Hicks, Robert E. Hubby, William Judd, George Koehler, Ella Leiter, Wes Lenerville, Emile A. Rouyet, Edward H. Ryan, Lillian Smithline, J. R. Swain, Felicia K. Traber, A. A. Van Cleave, Stephen Webb, Herman Witt, and Miss Dorothy Beatty.

CAMPBELL UPSETS FREMONT
IN RACE FOR S.C.V.A.L. CROWNBucs Score 36-29 Win Here Friday

by Bob Olson

Playing their best game of the season, Campbell defeated Fremont 36-29, last Friday night in a contest that was never in doubt after the first period. The Indians had been touted as big, fast, and high-scoring, but Buc aggressive-ness, team-play, and close guarding made Fremont actually seem clumsy in spite of their skyscraper height.

The same three Bucs who starred in the Los Gatos game made all the difference between the teams. Forward Phil Arman looks better every game; in this one his dribbling was superlative, his passes sharp, and his ten points amazing in that he was guarded by a man half-a-foot taller than himself.

Guard Vernon Lunt has already proven to be the most under-rated player in the conference. Lunt is Campbell's playmaker, best guard, and deadliest free-throw shooter. Tony Schraub in his usual masterful backboard control puzzled the Fremont star, Curtis Schwartz, all evening. Last week the big center of the Indians potted 24 points against Lick; against Campbell he scored only five and three of these points were made on free throws.

The Bucs maintained ball control as well as the lead, throughout most of the game. Campbell led 14-12 after the first quarter, 21-15 at the half, and 27-9 after three periods.

The junior Bucs are also undefeated so far in league play. The Paposes made a battle of it, but thanks to forward Dwight Klassen's long shots (and eleven points) the Buc lightweights also won their game from Fremont 31-26.

He joined the New York Yankee chain in 1946 at Newark, joining the Yankees in 1949 and in June 1950 was traded to the St. Louis Browns who subsequently moved their franchise to Baltimore.

Pilette, in an interview with the Press yesterday, said the Orioles are to be managed by Paul Richards in the 1955 season and about half the old team are being traded, although he himself has already received a contract. Richards expects to set up a strong defensive team like he did while managing the Chicago White Sox.

He said the Orioles have a chance to get into the first division and that Baltimore is giving the team good support. Cleveland, New York, Chicago and Boston have strong teams but age is catching up with some of their former star players.

Regional winners will receive gold achievement keys and certificates of merit. Pieces selected by the jury will be on display at the store from February 19 until March 5.

After the show, the key-winning pieces will be forwarded to Carnegie Institute in Pittsburgh, where they will be judged by juries of distinguished artists and educators for national cash awards totaling $15,000 and 140 tuition scholarships to art schools and colleges.

Santa Clara Is In Tie For Lead

by Bob Olson

At the beginning of the season three Santa Clara Valley Athletic League teams looked like title contenders. Now after two weeks of play, two of these three have already fallen into unexpected defeat, and the previously unheralded Santa Clara Panthers seem to have the only remaining five able to battle Campbell down to the wire for the 1955 title.

Fremont is big but slow. Campbell is idle tomorrow night, but resumes play at Mountain View on Friday night, February 4th. The previously undefeated Mt. View Eagles lost a one-sided contest to Santa Clara 53-39 last weekend.

It appears today the next big game will be the last conference tilt of the season—against Santa Clara here on Friday night, February 25th. The Panthers have brilliant forwards in 6' 3" Paul Lister, who, though only a freshman, is already being considered as an all SCVAL candidate, and Ron Stevenson, also 6' 3" who was great on the backboards at Mt. View. Ray Araujo is a high-scoring Santa Clara guard who clings to his man. Against the Eagles, Lister, Araujo, and Stevenson scored 15, 13, and 12 points respectively.

This week the Panthers should gain their second conference victory, and tie the Bucs for first place, when they play James Lick in a home game. The two San Jose teams should make this an interesting battle, but Santa Clara has the edge in both manpower and motive. For two straight seasons Lick has knocked the Panthers out of contention, and Dean Gile's boys are determined that this is not going to happen again.

Lick beat Washington 60-37, last week. In their only real test this season, the Comets lost to Fremont 59-41. James Lick has only one tall man in 6' 2" center, Leo Donahue. Santa Clara's front line height should take all the backboard play away from "the mighty midgets from East San Jose."

The Fremont Indians are to battle Washington's Huskies at Centerville.

Los Gatos Wildcats entertain Mountain View Eagles at home, and we pick them to push the Eagles farther down the league standings. Los Gatos actually gave Campbell more of a battle than did Fremont. In Jim Fuller, the Wildcats have the league's outstanding forward and highest scorer.

Law Students At San Jose Courts

Two business law classes from Campbell High went as a group to San Jose recently to witness the impaneling of jurors for three different cases which were to appear before Judge Foley, Judge Salsman, and Judge Owens.

Upon arriving at 10:00 they were immediately ushered into department 2 where there was a case before the court which dealt with personal injury. The students saw the attorneys for the plaintiff and for the defendant question the prospective jurors.

In all three instances the selection of the jury was not completed, but will continue through the week. One of the cases appeared to be very complicated and is apt to continue for several weeks.

The students were very fortunate to see Mr. Custer, Mr. Jensen, and Mr. Boccardo, three of San Jose's finest attorneys, in action.

Their comment in regard to the trip was that such a trip is invaluable and it gave much information which is not found in textbooks.

Those who went on the trip were Diane Aiello, John Bamford, John Bariteau, Mary Begalke, Gene Brown, Jerry Cathey, Bill Clewett, Rose Marie Deornallas, Yvonne Flaminio, Shirley France, Bill Goin, Don Harris, Akira Itow, Charles King, Lydia Martinez, Frank Mattos, Al Saliccia, Cecilia Serpa, Dennis Smith, Danis Solomon, Tom Tucker, Don Williams, Wayne DeConte, Shirley Trejo, Jack Rainey, Willard Stacy, Paula Rebulloza, Kenneth Daniel, Dale Dixon, Joseph Feasel, Pat Garrison, Earl Hames, Colleen

Trounce Salinas

The Cowboys from Salinas got tangled up in their own lasso Tuesday, January 18, as they were defeated by a strong Buccaneer team, 39 to 7, in their own corral.

Salinas ranks as one of the strongest teams met to date in the upper weight divisions and hold wins over the Comets from James Lick.

Coach Duddridge claims the victory as a team effort, and is impressed with the spirit and desire to win expressed by the whole team.

$110,000 Spent For New Construction In Campbell Area

Pacific Telephone expects the years ahead to produce ever greater expansion of service to keep pace with the state's phenomenal growth, this picture of mushrooming phone service today being reflected in Campbell.

In 1954, the number of telephones in the exchange increased by 323, bringing the total to 6,293, said T. K. Nordheim, Telephone Manager here.

And approximately $110,000 was spent on construction here last year to keep the local telephone system growing with the community.

In a report to Nordheim, Vice President and General Manager E.
D. Maloney stressed that the continuing influx of people into California means Pacific Telephone will be undertaking countless new construction projects.

"This year," he said, "we are embarking on the largest construction program in our history."

Present estimates call for a record-smashing $108,000,000 to be spent this year to expand company facilities in Northern California. This is some $30,000,000 more than was spent in 1954.

Maloney explained that Pacific Telephone's task is not merely to meet current needs, but to plan well ahead of California's population rise.

"Some thought that people would stop moving here a few years after the war," he said. "But they're still coming, and we think they will be for a long time yet."

"That means a big job for the Telephone Company," he said.

"To get that job done, the company plans to hire 2,000 more people this year alone in its Northern California area, a section bounded by Oregon on the north, and Bakersfield and San Luis Obispo on the south."

"It will bring the area's work force to 31,000 with an estimated annual payroll of $135,000,000."

"Pacific Telephone has had its growing pains to accompany the remarkable expansion."
"For example, it installed the two-millionth telephone in the area during November. (It took 69 years to reach the 1,000,000 mark;
only nine years for the second million.) It hasn't quite caught up with the backlog of demand built up by a residential and industrial development unmatched by any other state, but the record construction program is directed to that goal."

"In 1954," Maloney said, "the Telephone Company started transmitting color television programs in California, 1955 will see the introduction of nationwide dialing for phones in some Northern California communities."
